

Since the Telephone Privacy Law has been in effect, I have received zero (!) telemarketing calls. After over a year of "freedom," my plan WAS to cancel Caller ID and Name Identification services on my telephone beginning January 2003. This would save me $120 a year! If you allow the Telephone Privacy Law to be compromised, I cannot follow through with this plan. Do not change the Telephone Privacy Law to accommodate public harrassment! Thank you.